

Downloadable Brainstorm Exercise

To find your voice, answer the following questions to learn more about the kind of issues you can relate to and get involved with.

1) What kind of issues can I relate to the most?

- -----

2) Think about the work that needs to be done in Lane County. What do you see?

- -----

3) What issues can I connect with that are close to what affects me personally?

- -----

- Answering these questions and looking at your personal story are great ways to figure out what your voice has to say. This is an exercise meant to get you thinking about using your voice, and figure out ways in which you can get started.